SHERROD LIBRARY FACULTY BROWN BAG SERIES

Sessions are on Wednesdays from 12:00 PM to 12:45 PM in the Sherrod 4th Floor Quillen Gallery Area. Registration is appreciated but not required.

September 12 – Managing Your Online Academic Identity
Instructor: Ashley Sergiadi
Sign Up
If someone searches online for you, what will they discover? This brown bag session will cover author identifiers (e.g. ORCID, ResearcherID) and profiles (e.g. ResearchGate, Academia.edu) you can use to cultivate your online academic identity.

September 19 – Measuring Your Research Impact
Instructor: Ashley Sergiadi
Sign Up
How can you demonstrate the impact of your research within your field and beyond? This brown bag session will cover a variety of metrics (e.g. citations, social media) and related tools (e.g. Web of Science, Impact Story) you can use to measure the reach and effect of your research.

September 26 – Finding and Evaluating Journals for Publication
Instructor: Joanna Anderson and Ashley Sergiadi
Sign Up
Do you know and understand the research impact metrics of the journals in your field? Can you spot a predatory journal? This brown bag session will cover tips and tools you can use to evaluate journals in order to help you decide where to publish.

October 3 – Understanding Your Author Rights
Instructor: Ashley Sergiadi
Sign Up
Who owns the copyright to your works: you or your publisher? This brown bag session will cover the basics of copyright and how to protect your rights as an author during the publication process.

October 10 – Introduction to Fair Use and the TEACH Act
Instructor: Joanna Anderson
Sign Up
Have you ever wondered what is Fair Use? Can I use this image in my slides or use a video from YouTube? What if I want to show a movie clip online, how much can I use? This workshop will cover the basics of Fair Use and The TEACH Act. Bring your lunch and learn how you can integrate multimedia/digital sources into your teaching and research.